DETAIL ITINERARY

DAY 1

CAIRO ARRIVAL

OVERNIGHT: CAIRO

Welcome to Cairo, Egypt. On arrival at Cairo International Airport you will be greeted and assisted by local representative / tour manager. Transfer to Hotel. Check in.

Cairo is regarded as one of the greatest mega cities of the world. Undoubtedly, the city is beautiful and crazy. It is opulent in the historic finery despite half of it being damaged with no sign of repair. Perhaps this very well explains why Cairo is one city that travellers love to hate just in equal measures. The sheer pollution, noise and the huge traffic are just an assault on your senses but you need to look beyond the modern hullabaloo and you'll find a history that has been in existence since centuries. Full of life and vigour, Cairo is one city where you actually get a vibe of the Egyptian street life. No trip to Egypt is ever complete without you staying in the city which is regarded by the Arabs as the The Mother of the World or the Umm al-Dunya, Cairo.

Day at leisure. Evening Sound and Light show at the Pyramids of Giza and the Spinx.

The legendary Sound and Light shows are playing at world renowned Pyramids of Giza, Temples of Karnak, Philae and Abu Simbel; four of the UNESCO World Heritage sites. Their historical and cultural values are simply beyond description. Latest lighting, laser and projection technologies are utilized to visualize mysteries of the Pharonic civilization. Every year, hundreds of thousands attend these magnificent spectacles to relive the legend..

DAY 2

Visit the Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx

OVERNIGHT: CAIRO

After delicious breakfast Visit the Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx. Later get an insight into Egyptian Perfume making and Visit a Papyrus Factory. 1 cruising lunch on River Nile (open buffet continental food).

Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx

Fantastically attractive, the pyramids of Giza is the tomb of Pharaoh Khufu and the largest Egyptian pyramid. It is also the oldest of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. These fourth dynasty funerary pyramids are located on the city's edge and have always been one of the best highlights of Cairo.

The heat and the dust appear to be trivial to explorers when they experience the superb Pyramid of Cheops, the biggest pyramid in the Giza collection. Otherwise called the Great Pyramid or the Pyramid of Khufu, it has a plain wonderful tomb chamber with a sarcophagus.

Evening back to Hotel

DAY 3

Fly to Luxor. Visit Luxor Temple and Karnak Temple.

OVERNIGHT: RIVER NILE CRUISE

Egypt is a place worth exploring for all kinds of tourists, it is located towards the North-eastern side of the African sub-continent, Egypt is primarily a holiday destination that is well-known for the famous Pyramids of Giza, Egypt Nile Cruises, The Great Sphinx of Giza, and Egyptian Museum in Cairo. Also do not miss Egypt and Jordan Tours.*

Today visit Luxor Temple and Karnak Temple. Enjoy shopping at Luxor Souq.

Luxor Temple : Close

An ancient sanctuary surrounded by honking taxis, touts, and strolling families, Luxor Temple's grandeur has endured more than 3,000 years on the East Bank of the Nile. Linked to Karnak Temple via the Avenue of Sphinxes, Luxor Temple boasts soaring colonnades, elaborate columns, statues, and images of Amenhotep III and Ramses II.

The Karnak temple complex, in Luxor, is an archaeological site that was built primarily between the 12th and 20th centuries. At its pinnacle, it was the largest and most significant religious complex in medieval Egypt. With four Pylons, The Great Hypostyle Hall and the Triumphal Inscription of Sheshonq I, The Temple of Ramses II and the Great Court, it will easily take 3-4 hours for tourists to fully explore the complex. The Temple of Amun-Ra in the complex is one of the most prominent religious structures ever constructed in ancient Egypt.
