Things to do

Explore The Famous Mahe Island

Mahe is the perfect getaway from the loud and busy city life. It is an archipelago located in the Indian Ocean between 40 and 1600 kilometers from Africa's east coast. You will be surprised knowing the place has around 115 islands and among those, Mahe is the largest. It is a dreamy location with around 24000 inhabitants. So if you are planning to make a trip to exotic islands, this is the perfect place.

People come here from different parts of the world to admire the richness of flora and fauna. Moreover, the powdery-fine white sand, crystal-clear water, round boulder formations, and lush green palm trees make it a perfect location for enjoying the weekend. This remote island evokes the idea of paradise as it is beautifully lined with palm trees, a turquoise ocean, and white sand. Seychelles has so much to explore, and it is a truly varied and multi-faceted holiday destination.

Scuba Diving at L'ilot

The islands are rich with stone and coral reefs. These islands offer a thrill-filled set of activities to do in Seychelles like the majority of us haven't seen before, a flourishing world under the water and a great environment that makes it an ideal spot for the admirers of natural life and for scuba drivers making a plunge at the beaches.

L'ilot offers a profundity of 30 meters, an out-of-the-world evening scuba diving experience. The encompassing water has striking varied vegetation of different kinds with its dividers shrouded in coral.

Meet Giant Tortoises On Curieuse Island

Are you still wondering what to do in Seychelles?

Then An outing to Seychelles without seeing the goliath turtles would be a blunder. These delicate creatures are a pleasure to meet on either Curieuse Island or Cousin Island. The other spot these turtles exist is in the Galapagos Islands.

From Praslin, you can take a boat ride to Curieuse Island where you'll discover turtles with extreme shell size. You can see more turtles on Cousin Island, as on the coral atoll called Aldabra. The atoll is more distant and requires booking so don't forget to add this to your list of things to do in Seychelles.

Gaze at The Famous Beach, Anse Lazio

The beaches in Seychelles are the best on the planet and every island is drenched with staggering coasts and little alcoves. Among the islands' most alluring beaches are close to resorts. Anse Georgette has stunning trademark rock stones with luxurious stretches of white sand.

Anse Lazio has all the more impressive waves and breathtaking nightfalls. On La Digue, visit Anse Source d'Argent and Anse Cocos, on Mahé visit Anse Intendance, Beau Vallon, Anse Louis, Petite Anse. A visit to any of these beaches will make your trip even more worthwhile.

Seychelles Island Hopping Tour by Cruise

Ile aux Cerfs is one of the best coasts of Mauritius. Take this Ile aux Cerfs tour by speedboat and explore the place in the best way possible. The package included various water activities, lunch and also a visit to the Grand River South East Waterfalls.

Vallee De Mai Tour

Vallée de Mai is a UNESCO World Heritage Site situated on the island of Praslin. Home to the native habitats of Seychelles' unique palm wildernesses and with more than 4,000 trees of the incredible Coco de Mer, this noteworthy hold has been depicted as the 'Garden of Eden'. An evening in this supernatural backwoods sees you lounging in the green shine of the palm trees, which are endemic to Seychelles.

With the biggest and heaviest seeds on the planet, the female tree creates a heart-formed organic product like the state of a lady's pelvic area to spot out rare flying creatures, for example, the Seychellois bulbul and the uncommon dark parrot.

Visit Aldabra - The World's Second Largest Raised Coral Atoll

The atoll's islands sustain a huge range of extraordinary greenery as the world's biggest populace of 150,000 goliath turtles and its tidal pond flaunts the most dynamic marine existence of the whole archipelago and trust me it's one of the best things in Seychelles.

First given its name by Bedouin sailors, the atoll's brutal, sun-prepared climate and the quick streaming waters of its tidal pond kept everything except the boldest adventurers under control. There has been a little lasting settlement on the island since 1874, mostly contractors from Mahé drew in at various occasions in fishing, mining guano and creating coprah available to be purchased on the territory.

Cycle around La Digue

Cycling is the most ideal approach to investigate La Digue – on the off chance that you see someplace you need to stop, drop your bicycle against a tree and investigate. Try not to stress over bicycle robbery, it doesn't occur. Cycling to the well-known Anse Source D'Argent and the surrounding is so easy that most amateur riders including kids can arrive by bicycle.

The hardest trip is the slope over toward the south shore of the island. There you'll discover Anse Cocos, Unimposing Anse and Great Anse. The award for the hard ascension is that you'll have not very many individuals to impart the seashore too.

Golfing at Seychelles Golf Club

The Seychelles Golf Club founded in 1972. It takes about only 10 minutes to reach, from the Seychelles International Airport. This Club is about 4992 yards and has 9 holes. It is the only Golf course in Mahe. It is surrounded by coconut palms and takamaka trees around a mangrove marsh. This golf course doesn't need to be pre-booked (except for Thursdays and Saturdays).

Take a Helicopter Tour of Seychelles

The fabulous magnificence of the islands of Seychelles can best be explored from the air by taking an exciting helicopter ride around the islands. This helicopter tour of Seychelles allows you to witness the shades of white and turquoise blue at the Mahe islands due to the sand and water.

You can en route it to the trekking route to explore the rich wildlife in the woods and mountains from an birds-eye view. The night view of Seychelles from a helicopter cannot be expressed in words it just needs to be witnessed.

Explore Rich Diversity Of Flora And Fauna at Morne National Park

While the astonishing coastline of Mahé is without a doubt the island's fundamental fascination, its bumpy inside is an emotional scene that is magnificent to investigate. The amazing Morne Seychellois National Park includes a noteworthy 20% of the land territory of Mahé and contains a wide assortment of environments, from beachfront mangrove timberlands up to the country's most elevated pinnacle, the Morne Seychellois (905m).

Stifled in thick woods, the mysterious focal piece of the recreation center is abandoned and must be reached by strolling trails; the trailheads are for the most part open by the street.

Sunbathing at Anse Source D'Argent

Anse Source d'Argent is rumored to be the most captured seashore on the planet. With its delicate white sand, clear turquoise water, and enormous stone rocks formed by the components and time itself, it isn't hard to perceive any reason why photographic artists and movie producers love to come here. The main attraction at the beach is the sun Bathe. The beach is shielded by the reef, and is quiet and shallow, with just sand underneath which makes it ok for youngsters and couples of all ages.

Hike Around Anse Georgette Beach

Mahé Island holds some delightful nature hikes around Anse Georgette Beach, which takes you through untainted scenes of energetic untamed life and dazzling perspectives across the island. The simplest of the islands' path is the Copolia Trail, which is found in the Morne Seychellois National Park and takes you 500m above ocean level. Expect a 2-hour climb for certain precarious areas.

Morne Blanc Trail is another worth visiting trek. Since it's a little hard it requires around 45 minutes. one gets to see some stunning stone developments, a nice nature walk around the Anse Major Trail, which is moderately simple and takes around 90 minutes. The adventure seekers need to note it down in their bucket list as things to do in Seychelles.

Spend A Day At Petit Amour Villa

Seychelles has a stay to suit everyone's pocket. If you are on a romantic holiday or honeymoon then book a lavish stay like Petit Amour Villa, where you can enjoy a luxurious stay. Seychelles offers the most sumptuous lodgings on the planet. Request a room with a balcony to the beach or a choose a stay with a private pool.

What to do in Seychelles, especially when it comes to staying?

Our proposal: Split your time and attempt to encounter the two sorts of rooms. Pick one with a private pool on the island of Mahé and one that opens right to the seashore on the islands of Praslin

Go For Sunset Cruises at Cousin Island

This is among the most favorable things in Seychelles among couples when you're on honeymoon. Although this is not a monetary route for finding the different islands, it accumulates for an exceptional encounter where you have the extravagance and comfort of being in a personal ship and the alternative to sail to any of the available islands.

Presently various organizations in Seychelles offer personal ship insight yet each day leasing charges for an essential yacht can begin from anyplace between 1000 to 2000€ (for 2 to 8 individuals) and can go any higher depending on the size of the vessel, onboard offices and number of individuals it can oblige.

Sipping Champagne While Watching Dolphins On A Boat

Just imagine – you're having your favourite cocktail in a little boat that bounces all over on turquoise waters. Over the long haul, daylight progresses down. It's the ideal opportunity for dusk and as the sun is about to bend down, the sky is in shades of hue.

Abruptly somewhere close to two minuscule islands in no place, you spot 5 fun-loving dolphins bouncing all through the sea. As the day transforms to dark and your back to ashore, you keep thinking about whether it was a fantasy you just saw and to conclude this was fulfilling your desire list of things to do in Seychelles.

Snorkeling at Bird Island

Bird island highlights momentous snorkel spots and the most tremendous touring places. Particular types of birdlife and nautical life are the claims to fame of Bird Island. Enjoy swimming and detect the green turtles in the ocean universe of this island as it is a must for thrill-seekers and don't forget to post it on your social profile with hashtag things to do in Seychelles. Snatch this chance to encounter the excellence of submerged marine life and stunning amphibian animals.

Walk a couple of yards from the shore to witness snorkeling. Straight off Hirondele Beach, a 30 meters delicate swim and you will wonder about the brilliantly shaded coral heads and the many reef fish. It's difficult to keep check of the quantity of intriguing and unordinary fish you will discover. This submerged movement makes for an incredible involvement with Bird Island; secured by the reef, swimming is simple and safe.

Rock Climbing At Constance Ephélie

While Seychelles may invoke pictures of days spent on a great pivot of sunbathing and swimming, Constance Ephelia has plenty of alternatives for things to do in Seychelles for those who are on a mission to explore. There is a completely outfitted exercise center with an outside pool. Here is likewise rock climbing and zip wire accessible — skim through the mangrove woodland or hook to the highest point of a rock face. On the off chance that greenish-blue sea is calling your name, the boat shelter has paddle boards and kayaks, or you can take off on a jumping outing to the close by Port Launay Marine Park. The Trois Bank is appropriate for more experienced vast water jumpers as you'll plummet up to 75 ft to see reef sharks, octopuses, barracuda and moray eels.

Kayaking at Port Launay

The vast majority of the Seychelles island's unique mangrove timberlands have been cleared for improvement, which makes kayaking through the excess mangroves additional exceptional. Port Launay has one of the last and best excess mangrove backwoods on the principal island, Mahé. You can likewise kayak through the seaside woods in the Constance Ephelia Resort at Port Launay, as you investigate nature in this serene and elective manner.

Secret Waterfall - Praslin

Because of its nonattendance on google maps, the Vallee de Mai Praslin is known as the concealed pearl. This confined cascade will make it worth avoiding the seashores in Seychelles. The tricky rocks, huge coverings with sunbeams discovering its approach to make delightful rainbows and the consistently satisfying sound of the cascade will constrain you to invest some energy here and take a stab at photography.

Explore The Ruins Of The Leprosarium

Plan a visit to Curieuse Island on your Seychelles travel and investigate the vestiges of the Leprosarium. Curieuse Island is a little stone island, found exceptionally near the North Shore of Praslin Island. The spot is known for its uncovered red earth and displays an extraordinary nature so historians and archaeologists need to highlight this as your thing to do in Seychelles.

Plan A Visit To A Famous Hindu Temple, Tempio Hindu

Tempio Hindu is perhaps the most popular and primary attraction in Victoria, the capital city of Seychelles. This temple additionally passes by the name of Arulmigu Navasakti Vinayagar Temple and it was made 240 years after the primary Indians arrived at Seychelles. Tempio Hindu adds tone to the assorted social society of Seychelles as it is unmistakably situated on the bustling central avenue of the town which has the background of three glorious mountains behind the town.

This little and excellent temple in Seychelles exhibits a fastidiously cut gopuram with complex models outwardly and the insides of the temple are as luxurious as the outside which together are the star highlights of this stunning temple. You can say that this eye-getting monument stands apart among its adjoining structures.
